

Volunteering at WHOTT

Give your time as a volunteer

If you wish to become a volunteer we will be very happy to welcome you. We are an inclusive organisation and all are welcome to take part - just send an email to info@whott.org.uk and we will arrange to introduce you to other members of our team and decide aspects of our operation where you can assist. You'll first need to agree to our Volunteer policy.

Volunteer Agreement

Volunteers are an important part of WHOTT's workforce. We hope that you enjoy volunteering with us and feel part of a team.

This agreement tells you what you can expect from us and what we hope from you.

The Westcountry Historic Omnibus & Transport Trust, will.....

Introduce you to how the organisation works, your role in it and to provide any relevant training you may need.

Advise you of emergency procedures – how to exit the building in case of an emergency and where to sign into and out of the building.

Introduce you to other volunteers and staff working on tasks appropriate to you.

Discuss how volunteers can help our visitors.

Invite you to partake in volunteer forums.

Respect your skills, dignity and individual wishes wherever practical.

As a volunteer you will be expected to

Observe our Health & Safety policy

Take an interest in tasks requiring attention

Show respect toward other volunteers and assist them when necessary

Suggest ways in which you think things can be improved

By example encourage others to take a part in volunteering
